Very short, easy game; finished it in less than 1 1/2 hours. Weird graphics, a picture with an animated character that really did not match at all. Just finished this game after just shy of 2hrs, it's not a long game. However, for the money I wasn't expecting alot. I found it fun, not taxing on the brain, simple point and click, but be warned the UI isn't exactly friendly. It can also be a bit glitchy. I used the eye icon alot to see where I could interact with the scene, but overall I think this is a decent enough casual game, although it does feel a little like a school project.

For the couple of quid I spent I don't feel ripped off, and the time I spent playing was fun. Good as a time fiiller.
